Hi, I'm Jax and I take pictures.

I'm also wife to my favorite soldier and mom to three little hooligans. In addition to photography I love architecture and interior design, mid-century modernism, playgrounds, handmade things, bicycles, Vietnamese food, period films, jackets, sleeping in, the great outdoors, Subaru cars, and red couches. I grew up on the east coast of the United States (and it will always be dear to my heart) but am loving our nomadic life as we move wherever the Army sends us. My days typically involve lots of legos, nerf wars, vacuuming, folding laundry, reading stories, cooking (or not...), giving lots of hugs and kisses, changing diapers, making really tall block towers, squeezing in my creative time, and hopefully photographing you!
